“The Baby Or The Window?”
(Matthew 13:44-52)

It's time for each of us to decide what is really _____ in our lives.

A fulfilling life only comes to those who have _____ what really matters, and then give everything they have to _____ that one thing!

Everybody has their own set of _____, their own set of what's important in life.

Most of us would say our _____ are really important to us.

We were created for _____ and the family is the most basic of all relationships.

Most of us would also have on our list, our _____.

There is only one priority that can be at the top of the list, and that is: Our _____ in God!

We are to give our first priority to seeking the _____ of God.

The kingdom of God is God's _____ in human life.

Everything else in this world is _____.

When you _____ after His Kingdom above all else, the other things that are important to us have a tendency to _____ into place.

The more _____ you are to God, the more committed you are likely to be to your _____.

It's all a package! Seek God's kingdom _____, and you'll be a better spouse, parent, member of the community.

What is it that really _____ to you?

What is your _____ in a field, your _____ of great price?

Matthew 6:33 – “Seek you first His kingdom and His righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well.”

So, will it be the Baby or the Window?

Only you have the answer.....
