“A Tribute To A Woman’s Love”
(Matthew 22:34-40)

_____, Alaska is a monument to the power of a woman’s love for her family and _____.

We all know how important _____ is to our lives.

3 Things to be said:

#1. - Love is at the _____ of our faith.

Here is what Christian faith is all about: Love for _____ and love for one’s _____.

Jesus said that he had not come to _____ the law but to _____ it. (or, “to fill it full”)

The skeptical eye that the world regards Christians today, could be transformed into admiration and _____ if we simply _____ out these two teachings of the Master.

#2. – Love is also essential to our _____ and _____ well-being.

Researchers found that the most isolated people were three times more likely to die than those with strong _____ connections.

When reporters asked Dr. Menninger how it was that 80% of his patients recovered, he replied, “The secret is not in electroshock, surgery, group-therapy, drugs, etc. Those play a part, but the real secret is contained in a single word: ‘_____!’”

#3. – Love is our primary _____ as followers of Jesus.

How will the world know we are Christians? By our _____.

(over)

Olympian, Lawrence Lemieux: “As a sailor, your duty first is to people in distress...medals can follow afterwards.”

You and I will probably never compete on the world stage, but each of us can reach out and make a _____ in the life of someone close by!

Who is there that you and I can _____ love to?

Love is at the _____ of our faith.

Love is _____ to our physical and emotional well-being.

Love is our _____ calling as _____ of Jesus!

Who is God calling you to reach out to?
