“Where Did He Get Such Authority?”
(Mark 1:21-28)

When Jesus began his public ministry, he made _____ his home.

The man with the “impure spirit” recognizes that Jesus is sent by
_____.

I believe that Jesus is still in the business of casting out _____ whether they are physical, emotional, or spiritual!

Where did Jesus’ authority come from?

#1. – Jesus’ authority came from his _____ with his Father.

Teachers of the _____ in Jesus’ time didn’t speak with their own

But Jesus simply said, “I _____ to _____....”

This was the _____ source of Jesus’ authority. He and his _____ were one.

#2. – Jesus’ authority also came from his genuine _____ to _____ people.

When Jesus made a _____ in this man’s life, it gave them the _____ that he could make a difference in their lives too.

Jesus put _____ in people’s faces. He healed them and gave them
_____!

Jesus genuinely _____ about people who are in distress!

#3. – This authority also comes from his _____ to do whatever is necessary to accomplish that which he was sent to _____.

(over)

Any leader who is willing to give his or her all is going to gain the _____ of their followers.

Certainly that was true of _____. ---That is what the _____ is all about!

Why should people _____ you if they know you’re not really _____ to the task at hand?

#4. – It is the continuing _____ he has had in our world
2,000 years after his death and resurrection.

The early _____ felt his influence, of course.

Here’s authority: When your words and your actions send out _____ of influence that outlast your life!

Every sphere of human greatness has been _____ by the humble Carpenter of Nazareth.

Only Jesus Christ can break the enslaving _____ of sin and Satan!

He alone can speak _____ to the human heart, strengthen the
_____, and give life to those who are _____ dead!

That is why I have the authority to say to you this day:
JESUS CHRIST IS OUR SAVIOR AND LORD!!

Have you accepted Him as your Savior and Lord?
