

September 1, 2019

“When Mickey Mouse Recognizes You...”

(Luke 14: 1, 7-14)

We all like to be _____, even if it's only by Mickey Mouse!

Deep down most people long to be _____.

Jesus knew that the desire for _____ is an innate part of the human condition.

Status is at least as powerful a motivator as _____.

In Jesus' day money wasn't the primary motivating factor in people's lives. The dominant value was _____.

Everyone had an established place on the _____ ladder.

Ask any employer what the most important motivator of employees besides money is, and they will say, “_____.”

We all want to be recognized. We all want to be _____.

Jesus is giving us a lesson about how to make our life really _____!

The driving force in your life will be serving _____ and making the world _____ for the people in your world!

It's not whether you sit at the _____ table. It's where you sit at the _____ banquet table!

In the long run of things, it doesn't matter if the _____ character at the amusement park recognizes you, or even the _____ of the country recognizes you.

When the _____ day comes, will _____ recognize you?

THAT is what really matters!!