

October 20, 2019
“A Bridge Between Two Worlds”
(Luke 18:1-8)

Spies live in constant _____ of being found out.

The danger in living between two worlds is that we might forget our true _____.

1.- Jesus knew that his followers live in the _____ between two worlds.

The Bible says that our _____ is now in heaven.

Our values and _____ and relationships now reflect the character and the _____ of God.

The very word “widow” in Hebrew literally means “one who is _____.”

The judge is a good example of our _____ world.

The poor widow is a picture of all those _____ who are holding on to their faith in a corrupt and unjust world.

Jesus spent most of his ministry creating a _____ of the kingdom of God.

How do we fight off frustration and weariness? Jesus commands us to _____!

2.- _____ is the bridge between this sinful world and the kingdom of God.

What is the purpose of prayer? –

Prayer puts us in the _____ of God.

Prayer may or may not change our circumstances, but it changes _____!

(over)

Prayer helps us see the world, think, and to _____ to the world the way God would.

Prayer gives us the _____ and the _____ of the Holy Spirit.

And _____ prayer reminds us that God is working, whether we see the results or not.

Prayer is the _____ God gave us to set us free from the values, priorities and powers of this world.

3.- We too can _____ in prayer because we have a God who keeps His _____!

God promises that we will see _____ and _____ when Jesus returns to establish the kingdom of God on earth.

The Greek verb used here in vs.4&5 is a boxing term that means to strike someone with a full blow in the _____.

We are living between a world of righteousness, _____ and joy, and a world of _____, sin and _____.

The only thing that keeps us going is the certainty of God’s _____, the certainty of God’s _____!

God promises that our faithfulness will be _____.

Let us stay at the task of _____!

Keep the faith! Keep praying!

Let’s trust His plan!

Can you?..... Do you?