“Are You A Super-Fan?”
(Luke 19:1-10)

Super-fans are people who will do some pretty _____ things to _____ their enthusiasm.

I wouldn't call Zacchaeus a super-fan, but maybe Zacchaeus just had a super-_____.

This moment with Zacchaeus is the last moment of _____, face-to-face ministry we see Jesus do in the book of Luke.

What do we learn?

#1. – You never know _____ is looking for Jesus.

Zacchaeus was a despised _____.

“I have talked to some big stars about this, some really horrific characters, and you'd be surprised. The ones that you would think are the farthest gone are the ones that are the most apt to listen.”
---Alice Cooper---

The most unlikely people may be searching for the _____ only Jesus can provide!

Tax collectors worked as representatives of the oppressive _____ government.

Because of Zacchaeus' profession, he was barred from attending the local _____.

_____ is God's great gift to us because it forces us to notice the “God-shaped hole” that comfort and _____ and all other blessings simply can't fill!

There's a good chance that at some point in your life you will ache to _____ the Giver of life more than you ache to _____ the gifts of life!

(over)

#2. – But you do know who Jesus is _____ for.

He's searching for every _____ you can possibly imagine.

Jesus always meets us _____ we are, where we _____ need him!

Zacchaeus had a _____. Jesus had a _____.

#3. – When _____ meet their Savior, lives are _____.

Zacchaeus wasn't the only one who benefited from his _____ with Jesus.

A life transformed by Jesus is never just a _____ blessing!

Such a _____ effect occurs when Christ comes into anyone's life—including ours!

Zacchaeus had a _____. Jesus had a _____. We were made to have our needs _____ by Jesus' purpose!

This is what a life transformed by Jesus looks like!

The limitless riches of God's grace and love and peace!
