“A New Temple Shall Arise”
(John 2:11-25)

Many people in many different cultures through human history have made use of human _____ in order to _____ the gods.

To be a _____ being is to be a _____ being.

To be human means that we find ourselves _____ for our lives to Someone or Something _____ than ourselves!

God has written the _____ on the _____ of every person!

Every human being knows that they are _____ from God!

Estrangement means that where a relation once existed, that relation is now severely _____.

Our estrangement from God is our _____. We've got to _____ something about it!

How we try to resolve our problem is our _____!

We know we need to do something to make God more _____ with us!

So here at the temple were people going about the universal human _____ of _____!

They were about the business of _____.

Jesus spoke of the temple of his _____ - a body that would _____ from the dead after 3 days.

(over)

That day, people came to do something about their _____ to God.

They came to make a _____ to put themselves _____ with God!

People came to a holy place to do a holy thing and Jesus put a _____ to it!

Jesus put a stop to every human _____ of trying to do something to make our lives _____ with God!

Jesus said: “I will be the _____ where God and human beings _____ each other!”

Jesus put his body in the place of the _____! Jesus also put his body in the place of human _____!

God has _____ our estrangement through the _____ of God's Son!

Through the story of the cleansing of the temple, Jesus says, “I am your _____!”

Jesus says: “My body is the place where God comes to _____ you!

That means your days of being _____ are over!

You can live at peace now and forever!
That is the gift I bring you through the temple of my body!
