“Don’t Forget The Best!”
(Luke 2:22-40)

According to Charles Kauralt, “There are three kinds of _____ - good, bad, and convenient.”

There are some things that ought to be _____.

Fortunately, our _____ helps us deal with the good and the bad in life.

John Wesley said, “The best is _____ with us.”

The biblical word for that is _____.

1.- God is with us in the Christ _____ of Bethlehem.

A righteous and devout Jew named _____ recognized at once who he was.

According to the Law, they brought their newborn son to _____ him to the Lord.

They did this by offering a _____ in the temple.

The sacrifice was a pair of turtle _____ or two young _____.

The beginning of God’s redemption of man would start at the _____ of society with a _____ manger and humble home.

The Holy Spirit revealed to Simeon that he would see the _____ before he died. Every child is special to its parents, but this child would be a _____ to the world!

(over)

Why don’t we make a new _____ of our own lives to _____ the best in our lives?

We need to _____ the best because we so often _____ for less!

At Judy Garland’s last performance, she said not the time-honored “Break-a-leg,” but she said: “Time to give _____.”

Certainly if anyone ever “gave blood” it was _____!

As we leave this Christmas season and begin a new year, may God help us not to forget the best – God with us!

God who came to us in Jesus Christ and gave His all for us!

The least we can do, is to give our ALL for Him!
