January 31, 2021
"Are You Troubled By Demons?"
(Mark 1:21-28)

Before Mother Teresa died, the Archbishop of Calcutta ordered an _____ to be performed on her.

Possession by _____ has become a handy way to explain some of the _____ events that occur in our world.

When Glenda, the good witch in "Wicked" was asked "why does wickedness exist?" She proposed 2 possibilities: "Are people _____ wicked?" – or "Do they have _____ thrust upon them?"

We should be careful about how much _____ we allow ourselves in taking up _____ causes.

#1. - The people Jesus cast demons out of were not _____ at all.

The Gerasene demoniac in Mark 5 lived in a _____.

He told Jesus his name was "_____, for we are many."

A legion of soldiers was _____ men.

This man no longer had any sense of individual _____.

We really don't know what the New Testament means when it speaks of casting out evil _____.

#2. – Jesus still casts out _____ today whether they be physical, _____ or _____.

All of us have times when we are confronted with _____ and _____ that almost overwhelm us.

What a comfort to know that we have a Friend who can _____ brokenness of _____ kind – whether it is physical, emotional or spiritual – if we will let Him!

You see, _____ in God plays a role in our _____!

What is the biggest issue in having a _____ attitude?
It is whether we truly _____ God!

There's no question that our _____ state can affect the ability of our mind, body or emotions being _____ to healing.

We can't let the drama of this story distract us from what's really happening. Jesus saw a man who needed _____ and he gave him that _____ just as he has helped millions since!

How about you?

Are you troubled by such worrisome, but everyday demons like worry, _____, envy, resentment, _____ or unforgiveness?

You have a friend who loves to cast out demons!

He wants to help, if you will let Him!