

April 11, 2021
“Not Gullible; But Skeptical”
(John 20:19-31)

Some of us are a little more gullible than others. A little too _____.

It's a sign of your _____ that you are easily taken advantage of.

Our Scripture lesson for today is about the world's most famous _____.

Some things to notice out of this lesson....

1.- Many of us have had times in our lives when we could _____ with Thomas.

We too have doubted. We too have _____.

_____ is one of the most important _____ that God uses to produce mighty men and women of faith.

I wonder if God has not deliberately placed many _____ to faith in our world.

It seems that God intends for us to _____ with the great questions of life.

Someone said: “Never to have _____ is never to have taken the walk of faith seriously.”

2.- To experience the true _____ that God intends, there must come a time when we move _____ our doubts to a faith that is _____ than our doubts.

Spiritual _____ comes when we are ready to move beyond our doubts, beyond our _____!

(over)

There is something within our very nature that senses an _____.

There is within us a hunger that only a relationship with the _____ can satisfy!

3.- Christian faith can only be analyzed from the _____.

If you remain on the _____ looking in, you will never find _____ life!

The only way to prove love is to have _____ what it is to love and to be loved!

So it is with _____!

Two ways to prove the existence of God:

- 1- By the _____ of others.
- 2- Is to _____ Him for yourself!

Doubt is an obstacle that, when overcome, can cause us to have a _____, richer, more meaningful _____!

In the struggle for _____ the wise person _____ to move beyond his doubts.

The way to prove faith is to _____ yourself to the Lordship of Christ, _____ in his way and _____ his love for yourself!

Have you experienced His love?