

October 3, 2021
“Holding On!”
(Job 1:1; 2:1-10)

There are times in our life’s journey when many of us whisper those desperate words: “_____!”

There was a man in the Old Testament who knew what it was to hold on. His name was _____.

This drama takes place when it was assumed that _____ and goof fortune came as a result of a _____ lifestyle.

If you lived as God would have you live, you would be blessed _____ and physically as well as _____!

What is the secret to holding on? – When you’re down to your last shred of _____, when there is no longer enough _____ to make a knot to hold on to?

Some simple steps.....

1.- _____ to live one day at a time!

We don’t live in the now, but in the terrible, “_____ - _____?”

We add to today’s _____ the burdens of an _____ tomorrow!

Most of us view our lives as if we are standing in the middle of a _____, with problems and challenges all around us.

It is more accurate to picture our life as an _____, with a large _____ on the top and bottom.

Focus on mastering the present _____, and you’ll find yourself better _____ to face the stresses of the day!

It’s so easy to _____ Jesus’ instructions against _____.
(over)

Francois Fenelon: “Don’t worry about the future – worry quenches the work of grace within you. The future belongs to God. He is in charge of all things. Never second-guess Him.”

Let go of _____ and enjoy _____ this one moment!

2.- Remember that you are _____!

The feeling of being loved is the most _____ factor in our ability to _____ as a whole human being!

In the absence of that love, we become _____ emotionally and psychologically!

3.- Learn how to _____!

It’s a _____. The best way to hold on is to let go!

We need to know how to _____ our worries, fears, guilt, anger and _____.

God works through _____ and _____, through victories and _____!

It’s in our holding on, not giving up on God, that we see God’s _____ and _____ most clearly!

We learn that we can trust God through _____ circumstance, even when we cannot _____ Him!

There is Someone who _____ you and upon whom you can _____ your _____!

Learn the art of _____ your troubles!

Let go and let God!
Keep holding on to Him!