

First Sunday of Advent
November 28, 2021
“The Days Are Coming!”
(Jeremiah 33:14-16)

Every actor deals with the fear that something will go _____ when they step out onto the stage.

Israel was _____. Israel needed a _____.

Jeremiah is remembered as the “_____ prophet.”

When we first meet Jeremiah, he is a preacher of _____

Now, instead of offering a word of punishment, he offers a word of
_____.

_____ times in his book he uses the phrase – “the days are coming.”

1.- The days are coming where there will be _____.

That is the first _____ Jeremiah makes about the coming of the _____.

Prophetic words are meant to _____ us.

The Bible isn't just talking about individual justice. God's call is for a just _____!

During Advent, we should ask ourselves if we are contributing to a _____ society or if we're one of those who are contributing to the
“_____.”

2.- There will be _____.

Justice refers to the state of our _____. Righteousness refers to the state of our _____ souls.

(over)

A Yiddish term for “righteousness” is zaddik. It refers to a saintly person, whose _____ and _____ are aligned with the will of God!

The two terms refer to the division in western Christianity between those who advocate a _____ gospel, and those who advocate a _____ gospel.

Both justice and righteousness are attributes of the _____!

The days are coming when justice AND righteousness will
_____!

Jeremiah had a _____ for righteousness and justice.

He announced the _____ of One who would bring righteousness and justice into the world!

That One is _____!

We are Christ's _____!

We need to ask, does righteousness and justice _____ within us as well?