

Second Sunday of Advent
December 5, 2021
“Preparing For The King”
(Luke 3:2-6)

Most of us are willing to admit we work better when we have a _____ staring us in the face.

If it wasn't for _____, Jesus might have slipped into town unnoticed.

During Advent, you and I are _____ our hearts to celebrate Christ's coming.

The preparation and _____ are part of the _____ of Christmas!

1.- Preparation for the coming of Christ means, _____.

Luke says that _____ came preaching a gospel of repentance.

When the biblical writers want to add emphasis, they use _____. God is _____, _____, _____!

In his baptism of repentance, John the Baptist was offering the opportunity to align their _____ with the _____ of God!

2.- A commitment to _____ Living!

Repentance involves a commitment to _____ living.

People don't understand repentance as a complete change of _____!

A commitment to _____ living is a commitment to move forward into a _____ way of life!

In your life, where you are _____ to God, old and new attitudes and priorities and beliefs cannot _____!

(over)

3.- Receiving God's _____.

Without the power in ourselves to live as we ought, we throw ourselves on God's _____!

We depend on His grace to supply us with a _____ that only He can _____!

This is what Christ is offering us today: a chance to be _____ by the grace of God!

To accept Jesus as Messiah – when God looks at us He doesn't see our _____, or our _____. He only sees someone who's been changed by His grace, and He _____ that!

It requires a commitment to _____ living. And it means receiving God's _____ and _____!

God is offering it....Now is the time for you to _____ if you are ready to find new _____ in Jesus, the Messiah!

That is how you prepare for the King!