“What’s A Human Book?”
(Luke 13:10-17)

A “human book” shares unique experiences to help develop _____ for other people’s experiences.

This woman was crippled by a spirit for _____ years.

1.- What did you _____ when you came to Jesus?

The Greek word Jesus uses to describe this woman’s condition means: “_____.”

Through the Gospels, there’s an undeniable thread: Jesus is always looking to _____ people’s lives!

An encounter with Jesus will always _____ you or _____ you!

2.- How did the world _____ different after Jesus set you free?

Those who have been set free from a _____ truly know how to _____ God!

It is through our _____ that we understand the power of _____!

The most important moment in a person’s life is when they _____ to Jesus!

The 2nd most important moment is when they _____ what to do with their _____ life!

And that’s the 3rd question to ask.....

3.- Now that Christ has _____ your life, what will you do with the _____ of your life?

How do you put praise into _____ when you walk out these doors?

I hope that you will examine some of your _____ and experiences with Jesus.

There is no question, no objection, no anger, no burden that could separate you from God’s love!

If He has set you free from a burden, then what are you going to do with the rest of your life?

Let’s put our Praise into Action!
