

January 29, 2023
“The Sound Of Silence”
(Matthew 5:1-12)

We are constantly surrounded by some kind of _____.

When you pay attention to your _____, it’s surprising how noisy it is.

In Matthew 4, Jesus spent _____ days in the wilderness where he was tested by the devil.

Jesus knew that he needed his disciples to catch his _____ for his _____.

This teaching is only for his _____!

1.- True _____ of life were not found in the _____ of this world.

The crowds came to see Jesus because they had a _____!

They followed Jesus because they had a _____!

Blessed are those who don’t put their _____ in the comforts of this world!

2.- You’re blessed if you _____ in two _____.

The number one priority of Jesus’ ministry was teaching about _____ out the _____ of the kingdom of God!

His _____ and healings were signs of the _____ that God promises!

It’s “good news” because it means that the suffering and poverty, injustice and inequality of this world are _____!

We live in the _____ between these two worlds – suffering, poverty/pain, and the kingdom of healing and joy!
(over)

3.- God stepped into this _____ world, died to guarantee us a _____ in His kingdom.

In Jesus, we know that God _____ our needs!

God understand our _____ and our _____!

We can find _____ in the knowledge that God _____ beside us in our brokenness!

We have assurance that God will turn our _____ into blessedness and all things will be made _____ in His kingdom!

TRUST HIM!!