

March 26, 2023
“The Voice-Activated Life”
(2 Peter 1:12-21)

One of the first lessons parents try to teach their children is to use their _____.

The power of the _____ is testified to in today’s passage.

Discipleship is nothing more or less than _____ to Jesus!

Listening for Jesus’ voice is _____ business.

To listen to Him, we need to do 4 things:

1.- We need to _____ other voices.

Do we care more for the voices in our _____ life than the “real” and “true” voice of Jesus?

We live in a culture that is getting increasingly gnostic and _____; alienated and _____, rather than being awake within real relationships!

2.- We need to learn to _____ and be _____.

To “listen” is not just _____. Voice-activation living is active _____ with and reception of truth so that it moves us _____ in obedience and trust!

We make God into a _____ instead of a Savior!

Jesus is not our knowledge navigator, but our _____ navigator!

A Jesus faith is trusting the Spirit by _____ into the silence!

(over)

The letters that spell “listen” also spell “_____.”

3.- We need to _____ The Voice.

We need to recognize The Voice so that we can expand our understanding of _____!

When you’re with Him on the _____, you can hear him in the _____!

4.- We need to _____ The Voice.

21 centuries after Peter, we are still _____ to a voice-activated _____!

To be holy is to _____ The Voice!

The Voice is the _____ voice, and we know his voice and we _____ his voice!

Are you listening to right voices?

Is your heart in the place of saying “Yes, Lord, here am I, send me...use me...Speak to me...Do whatever you want with my life?”
I am listening!

Oh, that we would become a people who are living a “Voice-Activated Lifestyle!”