

May 21, 2023
"Jesus Prays For Us!"
(John 17:6-19)

Sometimes a pastor needs a place to _____ after a sermon.

This can be a _____ world.

The writer of the Gospel of John captures the _____ days of Jesus' life and ministry on earth.

In this chapter, Jesus prays for _____ and for his _____.

He prays for 3 things:

1.- He prays for their _____.

After the resurrection, the disciples lived in a world in which it was _____ to be a follower!

Today, sadly, Christians are more apt to _____ than be persecuted!

Here, when Jesus prays for their protection, he doesn't pray for their _____!

Rather than pray for them to avoid _____, he prays for their _____!

There is _____ in unity!

All of us need places where we can be safe, and courageous enough to face our _____ and discover _____!

This is the _____ the church has always provided – the knowledge that we are not _____!

2.- He prays for their _____.

(over)

He prayed that none of us will be lost from the _____ of believers.

We are surrounded by a company of _____!

Shepherds know that sheep are prone to _____.

Good shepherds don't let the sheep _____!

3.- He prays for their _____.

He prays that they will be _____ in the faith!

Indeed, the _____ of the world may very well _____ on us!

This is our purpose: to _____ Christ and his love to the end!

Where Jesus' love is unknown, there is nothing but _____!

We must persevere in our work of _____ to Christ and his resurrection!

Christ prays for our protection, that we will be _____ and hold one another up when _____ comes!

He prays for our preservation, that none of us will be _____ from the _____ of his family!

He prays for our perseverance that we will persevere in _____ the world of Jesus and his _____!

Are you doing your part?

