

June 4, 2023
“Teachers Without Chalkboards!”
(Matthew 28:16-20)

When we read this passage, we have a tendency to see only the _____.

These words of Jesus really did 3 things: There is a claim of _____. There’s the Great _____. There’s a promise of a _____!

A disciple is not just someone who has been _____ but someone who _____ Jesus’ teachings!

The teaching the Church is called to do in Matthew is called a “_____ education!”

Students not only know something at the end of the lesson, they also are to _____ something and to _____ something because of _____ they are!

The goal here is to be “_____!”

The goal of this teaching is not information but _____!

The noun “_____” does not pinpoint the responsibility as does the pronoun “_____!”

The class we teach doesn’t meet in a _____. It lives in a _____!

Matthew’s teaching assumes that it is the _____ who are to be taught to _____!

It causes us to reflect on our own _____ to realize that the _____ of those learning to follow Jesus are on _____!

(over)

Our teaching and our baptizing is to be done in the name of the _____ God!

We need to hear clearly today, that the “Father, Son and Holy Spirit” signify _____!

The _____ presence in the Church is one of the One who healed, forgave, liberated – and _____ his disciples how to _____ him!

The effective _____ of the risen Christ is at work in our _____ acts!

We can trust His powerful _____!

When our Lord gave us the task of making _____ he also told us that we can _____ on him!

Through our teaching, our obedient _____ and our _____, the living God will _____ and _____ in person!

May God help us to BE His instruments!

May God help us to BE THE CHURCH!!