“Fear!”

(Matthew 14:22-36)

The creation story reminds us that fear is so _____ to who we are as humans.

There seems to be no _____ to our fears.

Every person, every Christian, must _____ their own fears!

The most surprising fear of many people is the fear of _____!

Over and over again the message of the Bible is “_____!”

1.- We must _____ our fears.

We pay a price when we don't _____ with our fears!

Over _____ times are the exact words mentioned in scriptures, “Fear Not!”

And the idea/concept of not being afraid is mentioned _____ times in scriptures!

2.- We must understand that too much _____ can sink us.

Jesus can make Peter _____; a ghost will only make him _____!

Faith is a _____ taking enterprise. It doesn't come in a perfect _____.

This is a great story of what can be accomplished if we put our _____ in Christ but it's also a story about our _____!

3.- We must remember that regardless of what happens, _____ will be _____ us!

God does not _____! He is going to be the _____!

_____ - is the only anecdote that will exercise the demons of fear that can _____ us!

Fear crept in and _____ began to rise and Peter began to _____!

It's the story of our _____ isn't it?

When we realize the _____ and raging _____, it causes fear and doubt to creep in.

Our faith is _____ isn't it?

In life, there are _____ but _____ is with us! That is our great salvation and _____!

There comes a time when you must place your fear at the _____ of the Cross and lean into the _____ of a gracious God!

Then we can echo the words of the old hymn: “God Will Take Care of You!”

Can you give God ALL your fear today?

He's here! He loves you! He is with you!
