“Church People Beware!”
(Matthew 21:28-32)

Kids...they seem to speak a different _____ which may be a cross between “_____” or a low _____ or not at all!

This passage is really about the Pharisees and their type who _____ the talk but don't _____ the walk!

They were more concerned with their own _____ and determining who was _____ and who wasn't than they were in _____ those come into the _____ of God!

They were more interested in their own ritual _____!

Our problem: We're great when hanging around the _____, but we have trouble in handling events on the _____ road!

Where we have trouble making something out of our lives is where we _____ and _____ and _____!

Neither teacher training nor a seminary degree is an automatic _____ to heaven!

No one should arrogantly _____ salvation!

Jesus is saying that those who don't profess faith but _____ it as if they have, have a better _____ at salvation than those who profess but don't _____!

The problem is that the contrast in this passage is not just between _____ and _____. It is between _____ or _____ Christ!

The Pharisees never really accepted what it means to be “_____!”

It means getting to know the _____ of Christ, his harsh judgment and his great _____!

It means experiencing the _____ of Christ by truly _____, especially as we come to the Lord's table!

It means _____ the life of Christ every day!

Have you really accepted the Christ who _____ you and _____ you all at the same time?

Don't come to the Lord's table unless you _____ it!

The Lord's table is set with an _____ and a _____!

The warning is not so much “Sinners Beware” as it is “Church people Beware!”
Don't come to the Lord's Table unless you mean it!
