

October 8, 2023
“Speaking Of Us!”
(Matthew 21:33-46)

We have all had front row seats to witness _____ at its best.

Jesus knows the _____ condition of our hearts, and he desires that we _____ our ways.

In this parable Jesus told, the _____ got _____!

If we're good at greed, we think we're simply taking what is rightly _____.

When we're really good at it, we point to others and _____ them for their _____ behavior!

Breaking news from the Bible: Jesus was speaking to _____!

In fact, we are _____ in every parable that Jesus told!

Helmut Thielicke: “We will never understand those parables until we see ourselves starring in them!”

We structure our lives so that we can _____ more stuff, more _____, and more trophies!

When the landowner shows up, we _____ his voice and ignore his _____ on our lives!

The rent God seeks from us is our _____!

The rent God seeks is our _____!

The rent God seeks is a portion of our _____!

The rent God seeks is _____ living!

God knows we're not _____.

What we fail to do is _____ our shortcomings to this _____ God!

We _____ our sins to others and take _____ that we sin less!

I have met the landowner and find him to be a _____ and gracious God!

He gives me more _____, but his _____ will not last forever!

I vow today to take a look at my life and to _____ and _____ the greed that lies within me!

The vineyard is ours to use; the landowner is ours to love.
And his purpose is to _____ us!!

Thanks be to God!

(over)