

February 11, 2024
“Swimming With The Sharks!”
(Mark 9:2-13)

Sharks only grow as large as their _____ permit.

As a species we are highly _____.

Some of us need the _____. Some of us need the home _____.

If you can see the word “_____” occur right in front of you, you’ll begin to get a picture of Jesus’ transfiguration.

Moses gave the children of Israel the _____. Elijah was the greatest of the _____.

They were the highest _____ of the Law and the Prophets!

1.- The Disciples were _____.

We would be suspicious of their report too, except for the way in which it _____ their lives!

Being in Christ’s presence made them aware of their inadequacy, their _____!

To understand the _____ of God poured out in Jesus, we must first understand our inadequacy, our imperfection, our _____.

2.- Then they were _____.

Few people are genuinely converted “_____” all in one night!

This experience for the disciples was but one stop on their pilgrimage to _____ apostles of Christ!

(over)

Something real and important was happening _____ them. They were becoming more like the _____!

These men would move from being terrified to being _____!

They were in the process of being _____ by the _____ of the transfigured Christ!

Like the disciples, we soon discover that in His presence we are not without _____ and we are not without _____!

Before we experience Christ’s transforming power we are _____ eggs who can only _____ if we become _____ than we are!

3.- They were _____ loose to _____.

We are to be transformed and then we are to be _____!

Christ’s was a ministry of _____ to the _____ in the valley below!

When we’ve been transformed by Christ we catch a _____ of what the world could be if we all lived under His _____!

It’s time for us to escape the _____!

The transfigured Christ IS here!
And He is saying to you, do not be terrified but be transformed!

Reach your full potential in Christ today!