“United We Stand!”
(John 17:11b-19)

In our text today, Christ is _____ for the church.

Jesus loved the church like a _____ loves her child.

It was important to Christ that the _____, his body, would remain _____ after he was gone.

What holds together the body of Christ?

We are untied...

1.- By what we _____.

We believe in _____.

We believe that through Christ and his Holy Spirit we can _____ God and _____ God!

We are united in our belief that Christ is the _____ to God!

Sometimes there is _____ in the church.

When the dust settles, there is a common _____ that unties everyone who claims the name _____!

2. – By our _____ for one another and for the One whom we _____.

Saints of God should at least be as committed to one another as the _____!

I see people in our church doing little acts of _____ for one another all the time!

We serve _____! He is the _____ of our lives!
He is the living _____ within us!

(over)

The Apostle _____ set the standard for us over 1900 years ago.

3.- By our love for those we are trying to _____.

The church can never be satisfied with _____ its own existence!

We serve one who _____ out his life for the world!

The _____ we bring can change almost any occupation into the _____ of God!

Whatever our occupation, our one vocation is always to be a _____!

Jesus loved the church like a Mother loves her child!

Remember that this Mother’s Day!
