“Walking With God!”
(John 15:26-16:15)

How is your “_____ Awareness Meter”? Do you know when the _____ is beside you?

Morristown, NJ is home to “The _____, Inc.”

For many, their Seeing Eye dog is their savior and _____.

In the Greek, we would call it their “_____.”

Here, in John 15:26, the Greek word for “advocate” is _____.

The word “paracletos” means “one called to _____ alongside.”

The “paraclete” helps us to navigate the world while staying spiritually and emotionally _____!

Jesus knew that we walk _____ through this world, and that we are _____ by a thousand distractions!

Jesus assured his disciples that an _____ would come, who would _____ beside them just as he had!

Like the “Seeing Eye Dog”, Jesus did not just send us a _____ but a _____ with himself!

In the form of the _____, Jesus remains with us, walks with us, talks with us, joins with us in life’s journey!

The patriarchs of scripture were focused on their awareness of God’s presence, and they _____ God to _____ them!

(over)

Those who came out of that _____ experience emerged a _____ person, to _____ the gospel, assured of what they were meant to be and do!

With the Holy Spirit as their _____, they would go out and _____ the world as they knew it!

We are called to keep that _____ alive!

To be an apostle of Christ is to be a _____, not to be in our _____, so that all can be _____!

The Holy Spirit _____ to you not just for your sake but for the sake of the _____ that God loves!

God _____ gives up on God’s _____!

This Pentecost, may you feel the _____ of the Holy Spirit around you, _____ you, and _____ you!

May you open your heart and life and allow Christ to guide you in your being and living!

May the peace of Christ and the love of Christ go with you wherever you go!
Amen!
