

July 14, 2024
“Faith In Conflict!”
(Mark 6:14-29)

Our story concerns a man caught in a _____. His name is _____.

Herod respected _____, knowing that he was a good and holy man, and kept him under his _____.

Herod made good on his promise to give Salome the _____ of John the Baptist on a tray.

What a terrible burden of _____ for Herod Antipas.

Intense _____ always brings _____!

There is a price to be paid when our decisions are influenced by _____ rather than by _____!

3 kinds of Conflict....

1.- Some Conflicts Are _____.

They are conflicts that go on in our _____ mind and heart.

Herod had a _____ to make between being embarrassed in front of his friends and letting a good man die.

We become a victim of our own _____ choices. That's internal conflict!

2.- The second kind of conflict is _____.

This is the conflict between ourselves and _____.

Not all conflict is _____ or desirable. But some conflict is _____.

Evil always responds with _____ and _____ when _____ or _____ appear on the scene!

Life has many _____ to travel. - However, we _____ the road on which the shadow of the _____ falls!

3.- _____ Conflict.

Those times in life when God shows us a _____ calling and gives us a _____ -- to respond or not to respond!

We have a choice to give ourselves to something _____ than ourselves!

I hope that you hear God's call to _____ God's people, and that you are on the verge of saying “_____” to God!

Losing an argument with God is the best conflict you will ever know!

(over)