“Beautiful Words of Life!”
(John 6:60-71)

Those who were following Jesus from the beginning were _____ by the wayside.

This was a time of _____ for those who were left.

As we get older we start seeing _____ in the world around us.

In a dying world, Jesus reminds us that there is something _____, of greater _____ that awaits all who trust Him!

His words remind us that even the _____ person’s life can have a great _____ on the world!

The greatest heresy we can have is not a _____ of faith in God – but a lack of faith in _____ and what God can do _____ us!

He tells us that our lives _____!

How we feel about ourselves will determine the _____ of our _____ to Christ!

If we stay disgusted with ourselves, we can never be effective in _____ out to others!

Notice the words: “When we feel _____, we tend to do _____!”

People don’t reach out to others because Christ’s _____, and empowerment has never _____ their hearts! – It’s never gotten “_____!”

Some of us feel _____, but we don’t take comfort in our completeness, but in _____!

(over)

Some of us feel _____. We wonder why life hasn’t been more _____.

Could it be that our spiritual and emotional laziness is a result of our _____ of total _____ to His purpose?

There’s the expression: “Playing _____.” It means that people are immobile, feigning death.

Reminds me of many _____!

Our lives lack spiritual _____!

The reason is _____! Fear of total commitment to Christ and a _____ to hear and believe His wonderful words of life!

We all need some _____, don’t we?

Today, we have come to spend time with Jesus!

Only He has the wonderful words of life!
