

October 6, 2024
“Maximum Marriage”
(Mark 10:1-12)

Our lesson today is about _____. It is also about the more painful subject of _____.

It’s evident in our society that not only are some husbands and wives coming _____, their marriages are, too!

It’s as if we’ve lost the _____ for building a lasting and satisfying home.

1. - _____

In every major world religion marriage begins with a public ceremony of _____.

We are becoming a nation that’s led by our _____.

But God’s Word is very clear: one _____ for one _____ for _____!

2. - _____

When we hear the word “cleave” today we think of a _____ cleaver...

The Hebrew word used for “cleave” means literally “to be _____ together.”

Good marriages require _____ in love and _____ over and over again, but always with the same person!

Many marriages begin to break down when each mate begins to treat the other like a _____!

The couple stops _____ and starts _____, and the whole marriage hurts!

(over)

So _____! Be _____ together in love for one another!

3. - _____

Becoming one _____ certainly means _____!

Contrary to popular belief, it takes more than sex to make a marriage _____!

There are a lot of things to become _____ in, and so we are drawn into the fine art of Christian _____ and _____!

Any couple who marries is setting the stage for _____!

Fight like a _____ to become one!

How does a Christian fight? – With _____ and _____ ears and swallowed _____!

On the _____!
Marriage is like a 3-sided _____.
_____ is one side. _____ and _____ one are the other two sides.

The tent will not stand unless all three sides are _____!

Christ is saying that even though the storms of life beat upon you, your home will not break!

If it is founded on the sure foundation of God’s Word!

THAT is Maximum Marriage!