“Jesus Prays For Us!”
(John 17:20-26)

We don’t understand the essential _____ of the church.

If we could see the _____ as Christ sees it, we would not take _____ as casually as we do!

1.- Jesus Prays for Our _____.

Christ desires his church to be a close-knit _____! He desires us to be _____!

Many of us underestimate how much we _____ one another.

We need people who can speak the language of the _____!

We need people within the community of Christ to whom we feel especially _____!

2.- Jesus Prays for Our Unity with _____.

There is more than a _____ plane to the church. There is also a _____ plane. That’s what separates us from the _____ club!

Politicians today might be called “_____” – As they grow, they follow the camera because that’s where the votes are!

You and I are here because we are “_____” – that is, we are drawn irresistibly in the direction of God!

We gather here each week to acknowledge that He is our _____ and the _____ of our lives!

3.- Jesus Prays for our _____ Unity with Him in _____.

We don’t talk about _____ much in the church anymore, except at _____.

Our minds are too small to get around the concept of _____!

The unity we have here is but a poor reflection of a more _____ unity there!

Jesus’ prayer is that each of us would have _____!

Jesus wants us to know that the _____ that join us to one another and to God are _____!

Nothing will ever break them!
Not even death will snatch us from Him or from those we love!
