“Jesus Casts Out Impure Spirits”
(Mark 1:21-28)

People flocked to hear Jesus, because they knew when he spoke, what he said was _____.

Mark explains that this man who was crying out was _____ by an impure spirit.

The only social media people in the 1st century Galilee had was _____ to _____.

Not all impure spirits are _____ powers that inhabit people’s minds.

There are some perfectly normal people who have deep and deadly _____ issues.

There are all kinds of _____ spirits that work in quieter but equally troubling ways.

Let’s look at some:

#1. – Many of us are controlled by our _____.

For some, it is the fear of being _____.

For others it can be as seemingly benign as the fear of being _____ or being _____ at.

Some people are haunted by the fear that they do not _____, that they do not _____ up.

We hear loud scripts in our heads that say: “I am not okay.” These are scripts that diminish and _____ us.

These scripts stay with us all our lives, unless we allow Christ to _____ those demons!

(over)

#2. – The spirit of _____.

Many people are filled with free-floating anger and they’re just waiting to _____!

A recent survey on marital violence reports that approximately one in every _____ American couples has used some form of physical abuse in the past year!

_____ is certainly an impure spirit.

#3. – The most deadly spirit is the spirit that tells us we are unnoticed and _____.

It’s a terrible thing when you are _____ to feel unnoticed and unwanted.

Most people with such feelings are no harm to anyone but still they live a _____ experience.

Only _____ can cast out an impure spirit!

He can do that by filling us so full of the _____ of God that there is no room for any other spirit to _____ us!

Are you afraid, angry, feeling unnoticed and unloved?

Open your heart to God and let God create a new heart and a right spirit within you!
