

February 8, 2015
“Jesus Heals Body and Soul”
(Mark 1:29-34)

Two of our greatest presidents were born in February:
_____ and _____

Robert W. Youngs: What It Means To Be A Christian -

“Human beings have always praised and honored certain people in their own generation; but Jesus they have considered as an object of devotion. People recite poems about Paul Revere, but they sing hymns about Jesus, They construct monuments in memory of their statesmen; communion tables in memory of Jesus. Before kings and queens, men bow and women curtsy; before Jesus they all kneel in prayer.”

In the gospel of Mark, there are _____ consecutive stories that tell about Jesus _____ people.

It is a significant part of the Gospel message:
Where Jesus is, there is healing!

#1. – Sometimes that healing is _____.

Jesus completely disregarded all the paraphernalia of popular _____, and with a gesture and a word of unique authority and _____, he healed the woman.

The church is very _____ about prayer and healing.

Jesus does heal! Trust Him when you're _____ just as much as when you're _____!

No one is ever sorry for praying and _____, even if physical healing never comes.

#2. – Sometimes the healing is _____.

There are people who carry around _____ that last a lifetime.

(over)

One suggestion: Turn it over to Jesus. _____ daily for His healing _____!

Dr. Tanya Marie Luhrmann discovered 3 common prayer techniques:

1. _____. They used their imaginations to make the scripture _____.
2. _____. Letting themselves re-experience the sorrow made the scripture _____.
3. _____. That's when they said God _____ to them.

Hurts are not always from the past. Sometimes we need help going through _____ situations.

We have to find what works for us. But the _____ of scripture is that Jesus _____!

#3. – At times, the healing Jesus brings is _____.

Relationships are so _____, whether they're relationships at the office or in the home.

It's easy to joke about marital problems, but they are a source of _____ to many adults, and a _____ blow to many children who are affected by those problems.

The overwhelming percentage of the couples in marriages that last do everything _____!

One of the most important factors in marriage concerns “_____ and _____.”

Marital fads come and go, but there is one constant that is still true today: “The family that _____ together _____ together!”

Pray for your _____. Pray for your _____. Give God an open _____ to take up residence in your household!

Healing doesn't always come as we would _____, but a life of constant prayer will reassure us that we're not alone!