

March 8, 2015

“A Guide To A Rich and Joyous Life!”

(Exodus 20:1-17)

Many people would like to _____ the Ten Commandments.

Love for _____ and love for _____ tells us everything we need to know about the 10 Commandments.

_____ % of Americans say the Ten Commandments are important but only _____ % can name 3 of them.

A Few Observations:

#1. – The Ten Commandments were given to us by God for our _____.

God wants us to experience _____ joy!

The Ten Commandments are divided into _____ parts.

#2. – The first three commandments deal with our _____ with God.

H. G. Wells said: “If there isn’t a God nothing _____, but if there is a God nothing _____ matters.”

#3. – The fourth commandment deals with our relationship with _____.

It was stunning for Jesus to say that the _____ was meant for _____, rather than for God!

Everybody needs a _____... a time for rest and _____.

#4. – The final six commandments deal with our relationships with _____.

We live in a time when _____ is considered to be relative.

One reason we need to take the Ten Commandments seriously is that it is part of our _____ to the world that we are _____ of Jesus!

Christ has set us free from the legalistic _____ of the Hebrew Bible.

But the Ten Commandments are the best _____ we have for ordering our _____ with God, ourselves and our neighbor.

Living by the Ten Commandments is the way to find a rich and joyous life!

(over)