“When You Reach The Rejection Hotline!”
(Acts 4: 5-12)

Is there anything harder on the ego than being _____?

In today’s lesson, Luke, the writer of Acts, was quoting Psalm 118:22. He was saying that Jesus is the fulfillment of that _____.

Peter reminded those who were bothered that this act of healing the lame man was an act of _____.

Peter reminded all who were present that Jesus, although temporarily humiliated, was subsequently _____.

Jesus is now the _____ and no one can go before the Father unless they come through him.

Some important things our lesson is saying to us:

#1.- Jesus, the stone the builders rejected is the _____ of our faith.

Song: “Jesus is the Cornerstone, came for sinners to atone; Though rejected by His own, He became the Cornerstone...Jesus is the Cornerstone.”

The cornerstone is that fundamental stone that structurally holds a building _____!

Make no mistake about it; Jesus is the cornerstone for all who _____ him!

Luke knew this was the perfect _____ of Jesus.

He was rejected by the leaders of his day, but he was the only _____ upon which people could _____ build their lives!

#2.- Jesus is the only _____ foundation on which we can _____ our lives.

Is your life built on that foundation? If so, you are a very _____ person.

Only Christ can work such a _____ in a person’s heart.

Jesus, the _____ builders rejected is the cornerstone of our _____!

The same Jesus whom some have seen as a stumbling _____ is to those who know him as he really is, a precious _____ -- the _____ cornerstone!

He is the chief cornerstone of our _____. He is the only reliable _____ on which we can build our lives!

Have you welcomed Him into your life today?
