

December 27, 2015
“Brushing Your Teeth With Oreos!”
(Luke 2: 41-52)

Having a _____ is a challenge.

In today’s lesson, we realize very quickly that Mary and Joseph were not _____ parents.

Today’s lesson takes place when Jesus was _____ years old.

Mary and Joseph were _____ people.

The Passover lasted for _____ days.

It appears that Jesus’ remaining behind was _____.

As traumatic as this experience might have been for Mary and Joseph, Jesus undoubtedly had a _____ for staying in Jerusalem.

The word “astonished” (v.48) literally translates as they were “struck out of their _____.”

Already at 12, Jesus was conscious of his special _____ with God.

I realize that a young person can be _____ in to God at an early age.

It’s no accident that Mary and Joseph were returning from Jerusalem where they were celebrating the _____.

The average American work-week now exceeds most other nations. Most homes are dual income with a combined total workload exceeding _____ hours per week!

What is the real message we are giving our children about our _____?

Mary and Joseph loved _____ and he loved them, and they brought him up to love _____!

I hope that each of you, and your children, whatever age, come to know they have a special relationship with God too!