(Series: Finding New Life in Christ)
#3 - "Timeout At Galilee!"
(John 21:1-19)

The disciples were demoralized. They were ready to _____.

It's not that the disciples doubted Christ; it was that they doubted _____.

Being a "fisher-of-men" seemed too difficult for Peter, and besides he didn't know if he was still _____ of that call.

Having denied Jesus, Peter may have thought he had forfeited the privilege of being a _____ to Christ's resurrection.

No matter how _____ you are at something or how much you think it is for you, if that is not God's _____ for your life, it will not _____.

Let it go...and seek to find out what God's real _____ for you is.

It might be that we are so caught up in our _____ that it keeps us from _____ Him.

Some reflections on the disciples' situation:

#1.- Could it be that _____ is a necessary part of a believer's spiritual growth?

One of the myths nurtured by many immature believers is that following Christ should see us move from victory to _____ --that failure means that God is not _____ our lives.

Life is not about going from victory to victory. Life is about _____ and _____ as the Holy Spirit works in our life, during the _____.

(over)

The greater the _____ you are seeking, the more it _____ when you fail.

I don't care what kind of failure you've experienced in your life, Christ wants to help you _____ that failure!

#2.- Remember, you and I will have failures, but we will never be a _____ until we give up.

The question is not whether we will have failures. The only question is, how will we handle those failures, with _____ or _____?

Nobody's a failure until they quit _____.

#3.- Failure is where we _____ that God is with us.

If you never try anything _____ in this world, you never learn there is Someone close by willing to _____ you when you fall.

One of the crucial benefits of the life of faith --The more _____ you have, the less you worry about _____.

How do you get that kind of faith? By failing and _____ God's arms holding you up! By discovering that God's _____ is sufficient for you!

Regardless of how many times we have failed...Christ still needs us to be _____ of his grace and love!

Will you help _____ Christ's sheep?

Will you help bring this world into a _____ of Christ's love?

We must keep on keeping on!!
