“I Saw Satan Fall”
(Luke 10:1-11; 16-20)

It's always important to get the _____ story.

Question: Has there been a time in your when Jesus, looking at your life and ministry, has said, “I saw Satan fall?”

THAT is supposed to be the result of our ministry- the _____ of Satan!

#1.- Satan falls when a person _____ Jesus with their life.

It is a _____ trust Jesus is calling for.

The primary contradiction is that we cease trusting things of our own _____ and we begin to radically _____ Christ!

Satan falls when a person trusts Christ with their _____.

#2.- Satan falls when a person stands firm against _____ in whatever form evil may take.

Public demonstrations have been a _____ force in the past 30 years in some of the most important _____ issues of our time.

Whether demonstrations or not, some action is called for from the _____ and individual Christians. But it must be done in the right _____, and within the bounds of the law.

Winston Churchill: “Virtuous motives trembled by inertia and timidity, are no match for armed and resolute weakness.”

#3.- When a person exercises the _____ of Christ _____ in faith believing, then Satan falls!

We shouldn't get sidetracked here with the ministry of _____ which Jesus obviously gave to his disciples.

You don't have to jump off the deep end of a _____ to get into the water. But to get in, you have got to _____ in, or _____ in, somewhere.

And when we get in – taking a step of _____ and attempting what we know we could never do in our own _____ alone, Satan will fall!

#4.- Satan falls when a person is so at _____ with Christ that Christ _____ and acts through that person.

This is consistent with all of Jesus' _____.

A significant verse in our lesson, the closing verse, is verse _____.

Jesus reminded his followers, and us, that the most important thing to rejoice about is that your _____ is written in _____!

Even when we feel ourselves a _____ - if we know our names are written in heaven, THAT'S worth rejoicing about!

I want to take some more with me, how about you?
