“A Remedy For Rejection”
(Luke 4:22-30)

Parents spend years grooming their children for _____.

Maybe it would more profitable to train our children to handle _____ and _____ because everyone experiences it sooner or later.

In today’s story Jesus has returned to _____ in the power of the Spirit.

The people in his hometown didn’t _____ Jesus at all.

The people were so _____ that they rose up and _____ Jesus out of town!

A couple of things.....

1.- A sad but true fact of life: False prophets often _____ while true prophets are often _____.

Sometimes people are _____, not because they have done something wrong, but because they have done something _____.

False prophets get _____. True prophets get _____!

_____ is never the proper way to judge who is right.

The only measure that is trustworthy is whether that person _____ the love and grace of Jesus Christ!

2.- Don’t despair if you get rejected as long as you are _____ Jesus. It doesn’t matter _____ you get rejected.

Whichever way you are rejected.....rejection _____.

2 Remedies for rejection:

#1. – The first is _____.

There is a measure of truth here. Time is a great _____.

Here’s what we need to know: Persistence will eventually conquer _____.

We must never make it _____ for people to take their own lives!

Most people who determine to take their own life discover that, if they can hang in there until the cloud passes, there is _____ on the other side!

#2. – But an even greater ally is _____!

The most _____ antidote to feelings of rejection is the deeply inclusive, all-embracing _____ of God!

Jeremiah was known as the “_____.”

Jeremiah was called by God to prophesy Jerusalem’s _____.

Jeremiah could not have endured the isolation and scorn without a deep _____ faith in God!

His life was built upon the _____ of God’s love for him.

He had the greatest ally that anyone could have. He was on the side of _____!

Rejection _____. It’s a universal hurt. But we _____ go on!

“Rescue The Perishing” – Down in the human heart, crushed by the tempter, feelings lie buried that grace can restore. Touched by a loving heart, wakened by kindness, chords that were broken will vibrate once more.”

Don’t give up, regardless of your situation. God is with you!!
