“The Scariest Job Interview”
(Acts 1: 6-14)

Think for a moment about what might be the scariest job interview you will ever have – that is to be a _____ for Jesus Christ in today’s world.

Last week, we talked about how Jesus’ final command to us gave our lives _____.

In today’s passage, Jesus gives us a _____.

What does it take for us to complete the _____ Jesus gave his disciples?

1.- If we are going to be his witnesses, we will need to _____.

Action without _____ is like planting seeds in a desert.

We cannot be witnesses to something we’ve never _____.

Prayer is the experience of taking on the _____ and heart and will and _____ of God.

God never calls us to do His work unless He _____ and equips us to do it!

Jesus spent his life on this earth _____ to the Father and preparing us for _____!

You are a _____, whether you know it or not!

Do people see and experience the character and the blessings and the _____ of God when they look at us?

2.- The 2nd step if we are to be his witnesses is to _____.

(over)

We have to get _____ our homes and our churches to prove that we are _____ out our purpose as Jesus-followers.

We get to _____ people really well who would never step foot into a church!

That’s the whole purpose of the Holy Spirit – so that the living _____ of God could take up residence inside every _____.

The presence and the _____ and the _____ of God go with you into every situation!

3.- The final step if we are to be his witnesses is to _____ God.

This is the _____ step.

Because we think that we don’t have the right _____, or the exciting faith _____, or the eloquence, or the charisma.

You know what is wrong with that statement? – The word “_____.” It’s not about _____ or _____. It’s about God’s _____ working in us!

There is a world out there that is waiting to be _____ and transformed.

And if you are willing to _____, to _____, and to _____ God to work in you, then you will be His witness to the ends of the earth!
