

May 10, 2020
“The Secret To Happiness”
(John 14:1-14)

Some of us probably _____ treasure hunters and would like to join the hunt.

Stories of treasure hunters make me think of how many of us spend our lives searching for _____.

Philip catches a glimmer of hope in his statement, in v.8 – “Lord, show us the Father and that will be enough for us.”
The word “_____” is really the hidden treasure that all of humanity is seeking.

The Hebrew word “Shalom” is usually translated “_____” by Gentiles. But it embodies this state of tranquility that comes from peace, fulfillment and _____ - in other words, enough.

So much of human history has been driven by _____.

One question at the heart of every human being that drives our search for enough: “_____?”

If there is a God, then all of our meaning and purpose and identity and destiny flow from the _____ of God.

If we remove God from the equation of the universe, then human beings have no inherent identity or _____.

_____ is the answer to the questions, “Does God exist?” and “What is God like?”

In Jesus, we see a God who _____ us.

Through _____ and prophets, God tried to reach out and bring us back to His original plan for us.

(over)

When none of that worked, God came in _____ form in the life of Jesus.

In Jesus, we see a God who _____ our language!

In Jesus, we see a God who has a _____ for us.

When Jesus says he is going to his Father’s house to prepare a place for us, he is talking like a _____ to his beloved.

Only he can make this promise because he is, as he told his disciples, the only _____ to God!

The way to this place of eternal life with God is through _____ Jesus Christ as our Lord and _____.

We should echo the thought of Philip – “Lord, show us the Father and that will be enough for us.”

If you are still searching for meaning and _____ in your life, then know that you can find all these things in _____ the Father – who knows you, who speaks your language, and who has a perfect plan for your life!

Then, for the first time in your life you will be able to say with great happiness, “Enough.”