“The Wind Came!”
(Acts 2:1-21)

Last week, in Acts 1:4-8, we saw Jesus instructed his disciples to _____ in Jerusalem until the Holy Spirit came upon them.

The biblical word for Spirit is the same word for _____.

After Christmas and Easter, _____ ought to be the most hallowed day in the Christian year!

Certainly, there is much in the church that needs to be corrected and _____, but this is still Christ’s _____.

Some things about that first Pentecost that we need to look at:

#1.- We notice the disciples were all _____ in one place.

What car is mentioned in the Bible? _____

There was a _____ of spirit among the followers of Jesus.

There was visible unity among the followers of Christ; there was extraordinary love and _____.

One of the great scandals of our faith is that Christians have spent more time _____ each other as they have fighting the forces of evil.

Christ’s disciples were gathered with one _____.

#2. – The _____ within Christ’s body as well as our essential _____.

The sign of the Holy Spirit’s presence was a tongue of _____.

The human _____ is always God’s most effective instrument.

The human voice needs to be quickened and supported by the _____ fire that the Holy Spirit alone provides.
(over)

We get into trouble every time we try to pour all the followers of Christ into one _____.

We celebrate _____ today. It means that Christ is the Savior of the _____ world!

#3. – The _____ nature of Pentecost.

The Christian movement was never intended to be an exclusive _____ directed only toward a small segment of humanity.

It was not for the _____ that Christ died. It was for the _____ that he died!

God gave them a special gift of _____, for it has always been God’s will that _____ people in all places receive the Gospel!

We are still called to be a _____ church.

Tom Monaghan: “I’ve always felt the most important thing for me is getting to heaven. When I die, I don’t think St. Peter is going to ask me how many pizzas I sold!”

What do you think God is going to ask you and me?

Do we have the kind of unity, diversity, and missionary spirit to do the things God has called us to do?

Let us pray that a wind will blow into our lives and give us the Spirit that we need to be that kind of church!
