“Baby Steps On The Sea Of Galilee”
(Matthew 14:22-33)

If you're into fashion, you know that _____ make a major fashion statement these days.

Our text for today is about _____ trying to _____ on water.

The most important thing to notice is that Peter got out of the _____ in the first place.

Peter trying to walk on water is a perfect image of what it means to become a _____ of Christ.

Committing your life to _____ Jesus will make a _____ difference in how you _____ life!

#1.- The first thing we can learn from Peter's story is to come to Jesus even if we've got _____ questions.

An unexamined, _____ faith can't stand up to the _____ of life.

Jesus wanted to draw us to God with _____, not compel us by _____ or fear.

#2.- The second thing we can learn from Peter's story is to come to Jesus even if we're in the middle of a _____.

Life has its _____, doesn't it? How do you _____ to a storm?

The other eleven disciples took _____ in the boat. Only Peter believed it was better to brave the storm _____ Jesus than to stay in the boat _____ him.

God calls us to follow Him into the churning _____ of the world's needs, to make a difference with our _____!

Many of us wait to make a decision about how _____ we take the call to _____ Jesus.

Here's the problem: There will always be _____!

If Jesus really is the Son of God, if Jesus really is the way, truth and the life, then isn't the _____ of our life found in _____ our storms with him?

#3.- The final thing we can learn from peter's story is to not let _____ stand _____ ourselves and Jesus!

Peter almost made it. And then he let _____ and circumstances _____ him.

Vince Vitale: “The message of Christianity is that what makes us right with God has nothing to do with anything we do or ever could do, but rather with what Jesus has already done – once, and in full, and for all.”

Faith requires _____ and love requires _____!

Every _____ journey, no matter how rocky, begins with getting out of the _____ and _____ toward Jesus!

Are you ready to take that step, even if it's a baby step like Peter's?

Jesus is ready and waiting for you!
