“A Cure For Complainers”
(Exodus 16:2-15)

Moses had to put up with a whole _____ of complainers. The Bible says the people were “_____.”

Often it is people who have the least to _____ about who are the _____ murmurers.

There’s something about having much that makes us feel we _____ more.

IS THERE ANY CURE FOR COMPLAINING?

1.- It would help is we confessed our _____.

Many of us simply do not have _____ for murmuring.

Don’t know about you, but I’m tired of learning from my _____. I want to learn from doing things _____!

We need to count our many _____!

2.- We also need to acknowledge God’s _____.

The _____ of God is shown in his response to the people’s murmurings.

Sometimes when our children seem ungrateful, we respond _____.

God _____ the people murmuring and he responded _____, as he always does.

God provided _____ from heaven.

God also provided _____.

God also provided _____.

(over)

God heard the murmuring of the people and _____ for their needs.

A cure for complaining will begin with a _____ of our own pettiness and an acknowledgement of God’s _____.

3.- It is that we discover God’s _____ for our lives.

God’s purpose for our lives is that we are to _____ others!

Complainers are invariably centered on _____.

The Hebrews forgot that they were _____ for a purpose – to be a _____ for God to the nations.

God brought the Israelites out of Egypt not to live a life of _____, but of _____ - not to be served but to _____!

Dr. Tom Dooley: “Dedicate some of your life to others. Your dedication will not be a sacrifice. It will be an exhilarating experience because it is intense effort applied toward a meaningful end.”

Are you a complainer, a _____, a murmurer?

Isn’t it time you quit thinking about yourself and considered the _____ for which you were created?

Why are we murmuring? Why are we complaining?

Isn’t it time we say, “Thank You”?

Isn’t it time we began sharing those blessings with others?
