

October 4, 2020
“OK Boomer!”
(Matthew 21:28-32)

“OK Boomer” is a phrase used by younger people to dismiss or _____ attitudes stereotypically aimed at the Baby Boomer generation.

Truth is, that every generation has been _____ of generations before and after them.

In this parable we see _____ types of people:

1.- The response of the first son was _____.

Some people whether young or old have a _____ streak in them that causes them to _____ no matter how harmless the request.

Fortunately, many of these somewhat ornery people have good _____ and will eventually pitch in to help.

The son changed his mind, put on his _____ clothes and went out into the _____.

2.- The second son’s response was _____.

There are many people who are nice, _____, basically Christian people who will never _____ when asked to do something, but end up not doing it!

Jesus wasn’t interested in giving us a lesson in _____ life.

He was talking about what it means to _____ him.

What it means is this --- it’s time to get into _____!

“_____” is important, but hearing is in vain without “_____!”

(over)

3.- Jesus intended his followers to get into _____ serving the world as he _____ the world.

I’ve seen churches filled with _____, but very few are meaningful in bringing people _____ to the kingdom of God!

We have not been called to be pious _____ sitting in the corner with hands _____ in complacent contemplation. We are called to be _____ in the _____ of Christ!

If we believe in him and the cause for which he died, then we are called to take up his _____ and walk in his _____!

The power to make that kind of _____ in our lives comes from _____ alone!

There’s not a person here who does not have good _____ about being a better person, but the _____ to accomplish that goal is not enough!

We must ask God for the _____ and the commitment to leave our _____ zone and to seek to more _____ walk in the steps of the Master!

Isn’t it time to “Step forward” and give your best, rather than saying, “Not Me?”