“Are You Troubled By Demons?”
(Mark 1:21-28)

Before Mother Teresa died, the Archbishop of Calcutta ordered an _____ to be performed on her.

Possession by _____ has become a handy way to explain some of the _____ events that occur in our world.

When Glenda, the good witch in “Wicked” was asked “why does wickedness exist?” She proposed 2 possibilities: “Are people _____ wicked?” – or “Do they have _____ thrust upon them?”

We should be careful about how much _____ we allow ourselves in taking up _____ causes.

#1. - The people Jesus cast demons out of were not _____ at all.

The Gerasene demoniac in Mark 5 lived in a _____.

He told Jesus his name was “_____, for we are many.”

A legion of soldiers was _____ men.

This man no longer had any sense of individual _____.

We really don't know what the New Testament means when it speaks of casting out evil _____.

What is the biggest issue in having a _____ attitude?
It is whether we truly _____ God!

There's no question that our _____ state can affect the ability of our mind, body or emotions being _____ to healing.

We can't let the drama of this story distract us from what's really happening. Jesus saw a man who needed _____ and he gave him that _____ just as he has helped millions since!
