

Easter Egg Hunt

---

Inspired by FamilyLife's Resurrection Eggs

Hey Kids,

Here is a way to enjoy the fun of a hunt and still stay social distanced. First, grab a piece of paper and write the numbers 1 - 12 down the left-hand side of the paper like this:

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.
- 6.
- 7.
- 8.
- 9.
- 10.
- 11.
- 12.

There are 12 numbered pictures that will be shown in this presentation. In each of the pictures, you will find an Easter egg and a surprise close by. There is one Easter egg without a surprise. Some of them will be easy to find and some a little more difficult. As you find the surprise, write on the piece of paper the surprise that you found. Each picture will have a Scripture to read. This passage will tell you how the surprises fit in the Easter story. Have mom, dad, or an older sibling help you if necessary. When you have finished, have someone help you email Pastor Barb. Pastor Barb's email address is Barb@Bonnernaz.com. Make sure that your helper sends your name so that she can get another surprise to you for finishing this hunt.

May the joy of the Risen Lord be with you and your Family!

Matthew 21:2-3, 6-8

He told them, "Go into the next village, where you will at once find a donkey and her colt. Untie the two donkeys and bring them to me. If anyone asks why you are doing that, just say, 'The Lord needs them.' Right away he will let you have the donkeys."

The disciples went and did as Jesus had instructed them. They brought the donkey and the colt and placed their cloaks on them for Jesus to sit on. A very large crowd spread their cloaks on the road, while others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road.

Matthew 26:14-16

Then one of the Twelve-the one called Judas Iscariot-went to the chief priests and asked, "What are you willing to give me if I deliver him over to you?" So they counted out for him thirty pieces of silver. From then on Judas watched for an opportunity to hand him over.

#3

Matthew 26:27-28

Then he took a cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you. This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.

#4

Mark 14:32-34

They went to a place called Gethsemane, and Jesus said to his disciples, "Sit here while I pray." He took Peter, James and John along with him, and he began to be deeply distressed and troubled. "My soul is overwhelmed with sorrow to the point of death," he said to them. "Stay here and keep watch."

#5

John 19:1

Then Pilate took Jesus and had him flogged.

#6

Mark 14:71-72

He began to call down curses, and he swore to them, "I don't know this man you're talking about."

Immediately the rooster crowed the second time. Then Peter remembered the word Jesus had spoken to him: "Before the rooster crows twice you will disown me three times." And he broke down and wept.

#7

Matthew 27:27-29

Then the governor's soldiers took Jesus into the Praetorium and gathered the whole company of soldiers around him.

They stripped him and put a scarlet robe on him, and then twisted together a crown of thorns and set it on his head. They put a staff in his right hand. Then they knelt in front of him and mocked him. "Hail, king of the Jews!" they said.

#8

John 19:16-18

Finally Pilate handed him over to them to be crucified. The Crucifixion of Jesus So the soldiers took charge of Jesus.

Carrying his own cross, he went out to the place of the Skull (which in Aramaic is called Golgotha). There they crucified him, and with him two others-one on each side and Jesus in the middle.

#10

Matthew 27:57-60

As evening approached, there came a rich man from Arimathea, named Joseph, who had himself become a disciple of Jesus.

Going to Pilate, he asked for Jesus' body, and Pilate ordered that it be given to him.

Joseph took the body, wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, and placed it in his own new tomb that he had cut out of the rock. He rolled a big stone in front of the entrance to the tomb and went away.

#11

Matthew 28:2-4

There was a violent earthquake, for an angel of the Lord came down from heaven and, going to the tomb, rolled back the stone and sat on it.

His appearance was like lightning, and his clothes were white as snow.

The guards were so afraid of him that they shook and became like dead men.

#12

Matthew 28:5-6

The angel said to the women, "Do not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus, who was crucified.

He is not here; he has risen, just as he said. Come and see the place where he lay.

He is Risen!

---

Kids,

I hope you enjoyed finding the Easter eggs and surprises. The surprise in picture 12 is missing. Jesus is not in a tomb. He has risen. We have all done things that are bad. These bad things hurt other people and make us feel awful. This, is why Jesus came and died on the cross. Jesus' resurrection power is what we need. His love for us is amazing! When we ask Him to forgive us for those bad things, He forgives us. He becomes a friend like no other. Now that is a great surprise!!!
