“About That Anger”
(John 2:13-22)

It’s sad, but studies show that Americans are _____ than ever.

There are times when it is _____ to get angry.

Jesus was angry when he drove the moneychangers out of the _____.

They had turned a place of _____ into what he called a “den of _____.”

People wondered what went on, but nobody _____.
Everybody knew deep down that Jesus was _____.

1.- Christ’s example tells us there are times when a _____ ought to get angry.

Our anger reveals our deepest _____ and priorities.

A quote from Shannon Leigh expresses: “Anger is a _____; it tells others what isn’t okay, and it shows you where your _____ are....”

Jesus loved God and God’s people so much that he was disgusted and enraged by anything that _____ them!

When Jesus said to turn the other cheek, he did not mean for us to become _____ for everyone to walk on.

2.- Christ’s example also teaches us there is a time for _____.

Is there some _____ in the world that a voice within you keeps saying, “Somebody ought to do something about that”? Maybe that’s the voice of _____!

(over)

Singer Ray Charles stood up against racial injustice. Which state apologized to him, and used his song as their state song? _____

3.- Unresolved anger is a _____ problem.

Anger not only affects our _____ and our relationships with others, it is important in our _____ with God!

It’s not good to allow anger to _____ and grow.

For our own sake as well as for the sake of others, we must learn to _____!

Forgiveness and reconciliation are the _____ God gives us to _____ the future!

God knew that our anger would too often lead us _____ from our relationship with Him, and others.

So God provided a _____ for reconciliation, for _____ our relationship with God and others, by Jesus’ _____ on the cross!

If God loved us so much, surely we can _____ out in love to _____ others and restore our relationships with them!
