

June 20, 2021

“When Storms Hit Home!”

(Mark 4:35-41)

Good parents have a natural impulse to _____ their children and to serve as an _____ to them in tough times!

The disciples need an example of how to face a challenge that is beyond their _____.

1.- Everybody goes through _____ at some time or another.

Laura Petherbridge: “...Rejection hauntingly whispers, ‘You’re a loser. You are unlovable. You are a failure. You deserve to be alone. Life is over. You will never be loved again.’”

2.- The worst part is that Jesus seems to be _____.

“I want to believe in a God who _____...” That’s the question we will all _____ with sometime in our lives.

Word List

Asleep

cares example protect

Storms

strength

Wrestle

The story in Mark's Gospel is an affirmation....

3.- Yes, Jesus does _____!

Remember this: Jesus had all _____ in heaven and earth available to him. He chose to _____ himself of his power and take on the life of an _____ man!

He chose to endure oppression from the _____ government and _____ from the religious establishment and his own family!

Jesus chose to place himself into every imaginable _____ because he had _____ that God was using these storms for a greater _____!

Jesus chose to _____ himself into every imaginable storm because he knew God Almighty was with him every _____ of the way!

That's how he could face down every storm without _____!

We can't understand the power and the _____ of God unless we encounter it in the _____ of a storm!

The best way to get to _____ God is to be _____ in a storm with Him!

Word List

average	Care	caught
empty	faith	fear
know	middle	peace
place	power	purpose
rejection	Roman	step storm

4.- The question is whether we have _____ for the storms!

All of us will encounter _____.

Sometimes it will seem as if God has forsaken us. It is at such times that our faith will be _____!

The disciples learned: There is a God and he _____ up right on _____!

Do you believe in a God who _____ you and has promised _____ to forsake you?

Do you believe that beyond every _____, there is an _____ tomb?

Word List

critical	cross	empty
Faith	loves	never
shows	storms	time

If you do, you can weather the storm, however severe!

If you do not, today is the day to appropriate that faith for yourself!