

August 22, 2021
“The Dean’s Dilemma”
(Ephesians 5:15-20)

Did you ever fantasize about finding a _____ being who would grant you wishes?

There are many verses in the Bible about the value of _____.

As a Pharisee, Paul would have held a position of _____ in his community.

Our passage today was written during Paul’s first stint in _____.

1.- The foolish person lives as if there is no _____.

If there is no God, life has no _____.

If there is no God there are no absolute _____, no right or wrong.

If there is a God, and if there is a purpose to life, then the fool has a _____ to make.

2. – Wise folks know that every moment of their life is an _____ to know God and live in God’s will.

The wise person knows that they belong to God, and their first _____ is to understand the will of God!

Paul knew that every Christian is like a _____ - You have the opportunity to _____ others to God!

Magnets have the power to _____ and to _____!

If you claim to be a Christian, but are still living like a foolish person, then you _____ people away from God!

(over)

3. – When you know God and live in God’s will, then you can’t help but be _____.

An essential part of living in God’s will is living with an attitude of _____!

Paul is writing these words from a Roman _____.

Dr. Mark Jacobson: “Early on in my faith life, I realized that I had been wonderfully blessed and that I had some responsibility and call to give some of that back to others.”

The life available to us is marked by _____ joy and thankfulness!

The end result is of this life is _____ living now and eternal life with God!

May you know God, and God’s will for your life!